SACRED HEART NOTICES

PURPLE HANGINGS mark Passiontide, the final two weeks of Lent. Let us see them as an encouragement, a call to return to our Lenten observances that have perhaps become lax or disappeared. Why not a weekday Mass? or Stations of the Cross this evening?

CHRIS MANTON'S FUNERAL is on Wednesday at Holy Trinity at 11.00am. Unfortunately I am unable to attend. There is a meeting of the Diocesan Tribunal, arranged since the end of last year. I am responsible for two of the cases being judged and must be present.

WASHING OF THE FEET on Maundy Thursday evening. I hope one of the Deacons at Holy Trinity will come and help us on that day. If they do, we will have the Washing of the Feet. I fear I am now unable to perform that office. So we will need six volunteers, men or women. Don't be shy. Please let Fr. Cousins know if you will take part.
