SACRED HEART'S PARISH—Father Cousins writes:
Thursday next, 11th June, is the day assigned to the Parish of the Sacred Heart for Prayer for Vocations. If the church was not closed for public worship, the Blessed Sacrament would be placed in the Monstrance on the altar and we would be invited to come and pray. On Thursday, I shall offer Mass for the intention at 9.30am.
 As in every Mass of Lockdown, I shall include all of you in the offering of the Mass. I mentally place your Lockdown lives on the paten and in the chalice at the Offertory. Thus your spiritual lives and your home lives are offered to the Father with the sacrifice of Christ. Each day of Lockdown I am ably assisted by Barbara who is Server, Reader and Flower Arranger. We cannot come to church to pray. We can—indeed we must - pray at home. Is God using this Coronavirus to teach us what really matters: our personal relationship with Him? From our earliest days we have been going to church, attending Mass, receiving Holy Communion. All that stripped away, is anything left? Hopefully, what it all signifies: God's love for us and our love of God. Our personal relationship with Him. Heart speaks to heart was St. John Henry Newman's motto.
