CATHOLIC TODAY NEWSPAPER

is the Diocesan Newspaper. Every edition has plenty of news and pictures from around the parishes and schools in the Diocese.
The current edition has an interesting article written by the Archbishop on “Changing Patterns of Parish Life, Changing Models of Priestly Ministry”.
He speaks of older priests, reminding us that a Parish Priest has to submit his resignation from the parish at the age of 75. The Archbishop goes on: “ It is my view that 80 should be an upper limit for a priest to have the demanding responsibilities of Parish Priest even in the smallest parishes. We have now seen many good examples of priests who continue to minister, long after stepping down as parish priest. “
